Is He Insane?

County Judge Mason will this evening hear the case of a man named McDonald, now an inmate of the county jail, under a charge of felony, who is said to be insane. The man is reported to be hostile in his habits so much so that it will be necessary for the jury to view the alleged inmate in jail.

The Horse Snatchers.

Commissioner Paschal was engaged on Saturday in hearing the evidence in the case of the United States vs. Schneider, Kelly and Mosher, who were arrested at Oxtula for snatching stolen horses over the Rio Grande. The evidence was of a suspicious character and as it could not be completed, the case was ultimately continued until this afternoon.

Gambling and Lotteries.

The following cases are set for trial in Justice Adam's court tomorrow: E. M. Fowler, Max Samuels, John Freeman, Joseph Selby, W. W. Walling, A. W. Krumm, Robert Marx, Ernest Hart, Sam Herlihy. The cases are for gambling, executing that of W. W. Walling, which is for selling lottery tickets.

The Deeds-Monde in Court.

The District court was occupied this morning in dealing with the cases of those who keep disorderly houses. Lillie Gibson, Mrs. Brown and Sallie Brewer pleaded guilty, and were each fined $100, but Carrie Anderson contested a similar charge brought against her, and the jury have now her case under consideration.

Pistol Practice.

Last evening some colored men living near the residence of Captain Tobin had a quarrel and indulged in a shooting affray, in which one of the men was wounded in the head. The injured negro was the second dressed, and was shot to make an affidavit against the man who shot him, but friends are at work to hush up the affair, of which the police profess to be ignorant.

Thinking of the Poor.

The ladies of the Altar society gathered on the fragments that remained of the Knights Templar banquet and distributed it on Saturday among the deserving poor of the city and the inmates of the poor house. The kindly care of these estimable ladies gladdened the hearts of many with delicious morsels. An incident like this does credit to the hands and hearts of the members of the Altar society.

An Awkward Fall.

On Saturday while H. C. Woody, a carpenter, was working upon the roof of a house in course of erection, near the summit depot, he slipped and fell to the ground, a distance of 20 feet. He was picked up in an insensible condition and carried home. It was at first thought that he was seriously injured, and when he was examined by the doctor it was found that his right foot was broken in two places, and he was severely shaken. No serious result, however, is anticipated.

"Give the Devil His Due."

Mr. Al Red Thiesler, the Financial Secretary of the British association, like most of his countrymen, is exceedingly blunt in his expression. The other night, in conversation with Dean Richardson, he was talking in grating, direct, and in rendering into Greek the things that are "lowers." The dean, knowing what the British meant to say, and what he said, smiled quietly, and passed on. The expression Mr. Thiesler intended to use was the old proverb, "Give the devil his due," but thinking it a bit awkward for clerical ears, he could only utter the expression.

Meet Me by Moonlight.

The Bazar Association's association gave a picnic at the Springs on Saturday evening. The night was all that could be desired, and fair Luna shed her silver rays on all around, giving the garden a very picturesque effect. There was a large attendance of members and their friends, the ladies being well represented. About midnight ice-cream and cakes were served. Dancing was then resumed and continued until a late hour. Messrs. L. Weyen, Leon York and Charles H. Muench are to be complimented upon the excellent arrangements made for the picnic. A word of praise is also due to the general President, Fred Locker, for the excellent way in which he discharged his duties as floor manager.
